FROM THE PRESIDENT'S DESK . . .

Greetings Nobles and Ladies

It was nice to see a good turn out of Nobles and ladies at our January meeting. Approximately 39.

I would like to thank Noble Eric for a good year. I would also like to thank Noble Paul Johnson for his time as Ambassador and congratulate our new Ambassador, Noble Barry Robb.

Our Shriner of the Year was well deserved for Noble Dave Reeves. We all hope Noble Dave and also his golf committee will continue the good work.

On January 6/18 Nobles Wayne Wiggins, Dean Linton, Barry Cross, Barry Robb, Paul Johnson and myself attended the Rameses Shriners Election in Toronto. Thanks to all our hard working Nobles it was an Honour for Noble Dean and myself to present $12,000.00 to Illustrious Sir David E. Rawn.

On January 13/18 Nobles Barry Cross, Charles Mullett, Wayne Wiggins, and myself attended Belleville's Shrine Club Installation. A great time was enjoyed by us.

After the Installation of the Clown and ATV Units our guest speaker was introduced. She gave an informative talk on early signs of Alzheimers. Thank you Sarah.

Lady Jean & I look forward to working with the Nobles and Ladies in the coming year with . . .

"FROM THE DESK OF YOUR AMBASSADOR"

Nobles and Ladies,

Illustrious Potentate Thomas W. Woodrow has appointed me Ambassador for the 2018 year and it is an honour and privilege to serve the Algonquin Shrine Club in this manner.

I would like to extend my thanks to Noble R. Paul Johnson for his excellent service during the past year. Algonquin Shrine Club and its members have a history of fine Ambassadors who have served them well. I trust that I will measure up to those who have gone before me.

I shall endeavour to keep you informed and up to date regarding the concerns of the Temple and the Potentate.

Noble Barry Robb

The Chaplain's Corner

As the newcomer to this corner I would first like to congratulate Noble Frank Wilson for his two years service as Chaplain. Noble Frank always has a well timed and considered message. Hopefully, I can sound as good, without copying his work; more than once a month.

We all move into 2018 with the knowledge that we are part of a large Shrine family. A family that, while looking after each other, recognizes the needs and extends help to those children who need it most.

May the G.A.O.T.U. help and guide us as we continue this work in the coming months.

Noble Vaughn Lloyd

SICK AND VISITING

Lady Dolly MARLOWE is slowly improving and getting out with her usual Tuesday Lady's Luncheon.

Noble Frank WILSON visited Noble Al BELSON and reported that he will be turning 91 this year. He requires the use of a walker but otherwise doing well.
