FROM THE PRESIDENT'S DESK . . .

Greetings Nobles and Ladies

Another good turnout. Thank you Nobles and Ladies.

Our thoughts and Prayers ar with Noble Dale Ingram and families in the loss of Noble Dale's wife, Darlene.

We will soon be losing our Snowbirds. Hope they have a great winter and remeber the rest of us left in the cold.

Our cake sales have begun and we all need a positive outlook in selling. Please assist in selling as many hands make light work.

We had an excellent parade in Bobcaygeon. Thank you to Noble Dave Reeves for drawing our float and all Shrines and Ladies who attended. It was well worth attending as most of us know we received a $750.00 donation.

As our next meeting is close to Hallowe'en, come dressed in costume. Men please bring your Fez. A prize will be awarded for the best and worst costume.

Hope everyone is staying Healthy and I look forward to seeing everyone at our next meeting.

Fraternally
Jim Burke

"FROM THE DESK OF YOUR AMBASSADOR"

Greetings Nobles:

Well Nobles it certainly appears that fall has arrived and along with it a busy schedule for all of us. Christmas cakes have arrived and parades are on the horizon. This presents a perfect opportunity to be visible in our communities as we do the necessary work to raise funds for our hospitals.

On behalf of our Potentate Illustrious Sir Thomas W. Woodrow I would encourage every Noble to do your part in any way you can to support our upcoming activities.

Noble Ambassador
Barry Robb

The Chaplain's Corner

Greetings Nobles & Ladies;

This has been a super year for heat, but the signs are all around us now that the season is changing.

I trust you had a great Thanksgiving break with family and friends. We give thanks to the Great Architect of the Universe daily for the unending gifts we receive. It has been a North American tradition to assign a specific weekend to officially give thanks, which can be taken as a reminder to appreciate our circumstances and, of course as Shriners, the circumstances of those we try to help.

All the best, Noble Vaughn
