Ladies Welcome at all meetings

FROM THE PRESIDENT'S DESK . . .

Nobles & Ladies,

Congratulations to President Elect, Noble Wayne Wiggins and his officers who were elected at our last meeting for 2020. We welcome Noble Dave Mount, our spring candidate, to the executive. We were also pleased to have Oriental Guide, Noble Joe Johnson, with us to officiate at our election and installation.

I want to highlight the events of 2019 for our club.

Noble Reddy Sampath from the Hillbilly Club made a video of the winner of the $40,000 Shrine Lottery, Mr Norman Berry. Past Potentate, Jim Rennie presented his cheque. Congratulations Norman and thanks to Noble Paul Johnson who sold the ticket.

A new fundraising initiative, was started with Superior Propane and it is a success. Also the 50/50 draw at the home games of the Bancroft Rockhounds, held in Bancroft is doing well. Our Christmas cake sales are nearly completed.

Shriner of the year award was presented to Noble Hald Robinson by Past President Jim Burke.

Noble John Neil was one of our speakers who explained all of the new happenings at Montreal Hospital. Also our thank you to all of the speakers that we have had throughout the year.

Our ceremonial in June was successful, and I am pleased that we welcomed a new candidate and our new float made its debut. Also we welcomed Nobles Thomas Hayward & Brent Kahler who affiliated with us.

Our annual golf tournament was a great success; many thanks to Noble Dave Reeves and his team for their hard work.

Algonquin Shriners and Clowns have participated in several parades.

Algonquin Shrine club members took part in the Spirit of Bancroft, and we all enjoyed the "hunt" and dinner.

Our motto for 2019 was "Having fun and working for our Kids" I believe we have achieved those two goals in 2019.

Noble Charles Mullett

"FROM THE DESK OF YOUR AMBASSADOR"

Nobles and Ladies:

I bring you holiday greetings from Illustrious Potentate Jed Handy and his Lady Christine wishing you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year and let me also wish you and your lady a Merry Christmas and prosperous and healthy New Year.

From all accounts our cake sales are going well and our parades have been well attended. Congratulations to all those Nobles who have worked so diligently on behalf of our Shrine Children. The Christmas season always brings about good and loving feelings as we celebrate with our families. Let us be kind, loving and generous to each other and always be mindful of those less fortunate.

Noble Ambassador
Barry Robb

The Chaplain's Corner

Nobles and Ladies;

A very Merry Christmas to you and yours. In our day to day lives we are all busy and experience ups & downs.

How lucky we are to live in an area where people meet, wish each other Merry Christmas and actually mean it. We care for our friends and neighbors. This gives us all a sense of belonging and security.

To the child in dire need, the Shriners supply that sense of security. Let us all pray that the Great Architect allows the Shrine to continue to provide for the kids.

On another topic; this was in the news this week:

Reports in multiple U.K. outlets indicate that Prince Charles is in preparation to take over as the head of the British monarchy once his mother, Queen Elizabeth II, turns 95 in 18 months.

This means that our on-going look at the royal transition of the sovereign may have been well timed.

Noble Chaplain Vaughn
