FROM THE PRESIDENT'S DESK . . .

Nobles & Ladies

I hope everyone is having an enjoyable safe summer. By now everyone will know our golf tournament is over for this year.

It was another successful day organized by Noble Dave Reeves and his assistant Lady Brenda. I personally thank you Noble Dave for a job well done!

Our Shriners Hospital For Kids will be happy with our donation of $5000.00.

It was an honour and a privilege to have our Potentate Illustrious Sir Don Campbell, High Priest and President John Neil and associate golfers visiting us. We thank you for your attendance. The GAOTU provided a beautiful day for golfing. Everyone enjoyed a good day of golfing and a fine meal afterwards.

A special thankyou to Noble Wiggins, our ticket salesman for another good job.

I hope to see to everyone at our next meeting.

Noble President Jim Burke

"FROM THE DESK OF YOUR AMBASSADOR"

September, 2022

Nobles, I bring greetings from Illustrious Sir Donald Campbell. It was nice to have him attend our golf tournament in support of our fund raising efforts as we resume our activities this fall.

Congratulations to Noble Reeves on organizing such a fine event.

As you read this message we will have already participated in our first parade of the season in Kinmount. I am looking forward enthusiastically to attending more parades and showing the colours so to speak.

Lastly, Ernie is also excited about the prospect of meeting again.
