FROM THE PRESIDENT'S DESK . . .

Greetings Nobles and Ladies

Our November meeting was hit with snow flurries and freezing rain which made for treacherous driving and I would like to thank the 16 Nobles and Ladies that made the trip.

Our November meeting was elections and Assistant Rabban John Neil and his fellow Noble made the trip from Belleville to run our elections for the evening and I want to personally thank them for driving all the way to Wilberforce in horrible weather to do so.

Congratulations to the incoming President David Mount and his slate of Nobles that will be installed by the incoming Potentate at our January meeting.

The parade dates will be on the news letter and our secretary has sent an email to the Nobles with the parade dates.

We also presented Assistant Rabban John Neil with a cheque for $5000 to be given to transportation for the hospital. It is of course a great feeling donating money to such a great cause and that's why we are all proud to be Shriners.

Our December meeting will be on Dec 19 and I hope to see everyone out for a Christmas Celebration. Again thanks to the Nobles that made the November meeting and congratulations to the new executive for 2024.

See you in December.

Noble President Dave Reeves and Lady Brenda

"FROM THE DESK OF YOUR AMBASSADOR"

Greetings Nobles.

Well this will be my last message to you as your Ambassador.

It has been my pleasure and honour to have represented our club over the last few years.

I wish you and your family a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Noble Ambassador
Barry Robb

Merry

Christmas

Condolences to Nick and his family

Sick & Visiting

It was a pleasure to see Noble Larry MARLOWE present at a recent Friday Coffee Club. He seems to be doing well, however unable to drive anymore. But Lady Dolly MARLOWE is still suffering with health issues requiring frequent hospital care.
